Paragraph Writing

The phrase "A thing of beauty is a joy forever." means that a beauty present around us is an endless joy. Every creation of Allah has a lot of beauty in it in different forms which are admirable and precious.

We can say that beauty has two forms:
a) Artificial beauty and Natural beauty. The artificial beauty is created by man and is temporary with the fluctuations of atmosphere. For instance, Taj Mahal is the form of artificial beauty created by Shah Jahan for his wife Taj. This is the piece of beauty which can decline with time. Moreover, there are number of beauties around us hidden in the nature. The natural beauty could be felt by deep feelings, emotions and thoughts which helps to interact with nature. Natural beauty is replenished by Allah and this is an endless joy. For example, four seasons are the gift of Allah to us which has its importance in its own. The spring season after winter has a lot of beauty with blooming flowers, chirping of birds and lush greenery everywhere. The spring season always remains a good motivation that all difficulties come with ease, surely. Moreover, Pakistan is the place which is filled with breathtaking places and admirable sites having endless joy. These are Hunza Valley, Skardu, Nanga Parbat, Neelum Valley; with purely blue water, and Hindokush mountains. Pakistan is blessed with this natural beauty which has no end or no decline. It is the way of joy for those who have the power of critical thinking, aesthetic activity, and moral values. The endless joy of the natural beauty makes that site the hub for tourism and enhances its financial values. The natural beauty is the medicine
