

Properly deconstruct the topic.

And give relevant arguments accordingly

Bring clarity in your ideas ..

Coherence in your paragraph

Well! Sometime a person encounters

Such a joyful thing which would be the source of pleasure for him in hectic situation. It may be the scenery of the nature or a pleasure-able memory ; it mitigates the person's mind. To love the beauty is being the nature of human;

because our Creator also loves beauty. It clears from Hadith, "Allah is beautiful and loves beauty."

People don't go to far away places to search beauty, a person who purifies his soul for him this world is a masterpiece of his Creator.. In "Miss Rhumpus" book,

The girl urged to make the world more beautiful by growing lupine trees ; it is due to her cheerful experience with them. Therefore, everything which is joyable for a person leaves a ~~longlasting~~ impression in his mind. It is also a source of resilience during harsh condition.