Comprehension

Q1: Why most of us fail in our efforts for self-improvement?

~~Self-Improvement is essential for getting rid of the failures and learning from them. But~~ most of us fail in our efforts for self-improvement because people have a lot of inspiring thoughts but not a time to work on it. Self-improvement requires the devotion and hard work silently without any illusion. The most fundamental error in the efforts of self-improvement is to announce the one's resolution to everyone before time, that is a setback.

Q2: Why is it a basic mistake to announce our resolution to everybody?

It is a fundamental mistake to announce our resolution to everybody because they would know about your ambition before presenting by you at certain time. The big setback is that if you skip any important point and move back to outdated steps, this will be foolish. So, it is necessary to hide resolution and work efficiently without sharing with anyone.

If we fail, it will make us look foolish

Q3: why did the writer not carry out his resolution on New Year's Day?

According to the writer, he decided to keep his resolution by himself. The writer did not carry out his resolution on New Year's Day because on first day he working on strengthening his power to do work and gathering knowledge.

He focused on these two things efficiently and excused to carry out his resolution. On the second, he got up before earlier and started his work with great ambition and devotion.
This is the main reason of not to carry his resolution on New Year's Day.
