

English Essay Paragraph

Test-01

Name: Saad Talib

Batch: Isb-075

LMS ID: 38356

Women Empowerment

Fragility is the name of women, as stated by Shakespeare in his play Hamlet. In this phrase idea is depicted that women is weak or if weakness has the name it will be the woman. But, if someone looks at 21st Century, where fragility is no more the name of women. Women are empowered at 190's when Simone de Beauvoir, Jude Harmon, Jane Austine, Virginia Woolf start introducing female as an empowered creature. And then many rights women has given like right to vote, right to work equaliant to men and many others. All these rights given

Focus on the tenses Properly comprehend
the topic
Women empowerment
?

Do you think women all across the world are empowered enough to raise their voices

Give arguments in this context or what it means to be empowered

If you want to give historical background write it in a precise way

Mention how women are empowered in.

The 21st century. Give arguments to women in the West in late 20th and early 21st C. But, in Islam, Prophet of Allah, Muhammad (P.B.UH) has already given the rights about 1400 years ago in his last-sermon. Women of today's world is so much ~~power~~ powerful and strong in her aims. Women like Sharmeen Obaid Chetty, a filmmaker, who has awarded by two noble-prizes. Women like Shaheed Benazir Bhutto who gave her life. Woman like Mukhtara Mai, who stands for her own-self, raise voice against oppression and there are many other examples in all over the world which proves that women of present-time were no longer be a ~~strong~~ weak women. Women is empowered by many approaches like in Pakistan, Women Studies first studied started in 2018. and in many other ways, women can be seen empowered, like women have the right to chose their life-partners by their own, right to speech, right to education, and many-more. Many Male-poets have their poetry where they were acknowledging women. Allama Iqbal said

ع۔ وجودِ زن سے ہے اھورا کائنات میں رنگ اسی کے ساز سے ہے زندگی کا سوزِ دروں

This means great poet & philosopher Allama Iqbal also acknowledge womans and their very basic and important existence for life. To cut the short story into the end, women are now empowered and seeking more-ways to strengthen their role in society and all over the world.

