READING COMPREHENSION

(1)

The text laments that modern society has lost its appreciation for art and beauty. It is not longer practiced by common workmen but is confined to only few professional painters and sculptors. Furthermore, people no longer recognize this aesthetic activity as something common to all humans, nor do they value beauty as essential requirement in the thing, the they make or buy.

(2)

An Ordinary man vs an Artist:

The key difference between an ordinary man and an artist is awareness and conscious exercise.

An artist is someone who is deeply aware of the beauty in the universe and strives to reflect that beauty in whatever he creates. While an ordinary person fails to recognize this aesthetic activity within himself or others, does not consciously exercise it, and does not value its presence or absence in objects.

Making Our Lives Beautiful and Charming:

We can make our lives beautiful and charming by recognizing and practicing aesthetic activity in our daily lives. We must cultivate the habit of seeing beauty in the universe and reflect that beauty in our actions and creations. This will fulfill our spiritual need and enrich life.

(4)

"Beauty is not an ornament to Life."

The writer means that beauty is not merely a superficial decoration or an optional luxury, instead, it is a fundamental and
