COMPREHENSION:

Q1- Why most of us fail in our efforts for self-improvement?

The reasons for a person's failure in their efforts for self-improvement mainly include setting a daunting list of tasks with little to no time and ambition to achieve them. This yearly decision of making an effort becomes burdensome when distractions tempt the person from their goals. Another leading cause is announcing the set goals for self-improvement to people, which creates fear of judgement.

Q2- Why is it a basic mistake to announce our mistake resolution to everybody?

Announcing one's resolution to everyone puts the person under their judgement and criticism. The already ~~intimidating~~ tasks become more ~~unachievable~~. The fear of ~~jabs~~ and ~~taunts~~ from others ~~constricts~~ the person's potential for ~~accomplishing~~ their goals.

Q3- Why did the writer not carry out his resolution on New Year's Day?

The writer did not carry out his ~~task~~ resolution on New Year's Day because of an overnight party. The writer used party as an excuse to ~~delay~~ the tasks ~~in his~~ and broke ~~his~~ resolve on the very first day.
