

Answer - 1

The downfall of aesthetic values and lack of appreciation for beauty and artistic values has been lamented. The author also laments that very rarely, now, someone desires to strive for noble goals like those of scientists and artists.

Answer - 2

The difference between an artist and ordinary man is of awareness and of the manifestation of the beauty in the universe and a spiritual desire to portray that beauty in artistic works. An artist sees the beauty of the world and manifest it in his work, thus, satisfying his own spiritual desire. An ordinary man lacks this dedication, to see the world and its beauty in relation to his own work.

Answer - 3

We can make our lives beautiful and charming by restoring the faded value of art and aesthetic aspect of every activity of life. We should discover the principle of beauty in the universe.

Answer - 4

→ The author means ~~that~~ beauty is not an added value to ~~life~~ but its an essential part of it. Beauty is not a source of pleasure, but an ~~important~~ element, we all search for in every activity of life.

Answer - 5

Yes, art and beauty affect our practical life and morals. Art provides us ~~the~~ portrait of the beauty of the world. An artist of every kind sees beauty in the world and manifest it in his ~~work~~, we value his work and his sense of beauty. On the other hand, if beauty is absent from our life, unsatisfied spiritual ~~desires~~ remains. Any work without beauty is like thought without truth or action without virtue.