

Q-1 What has been lamented in the text?

Ans:

It has been lamented in the text that the art has vanished in our daily life. There is no beauty in the objects that we use daily because they are made by common workers and common workers do not practice art. People have stopped recognizing beauty as a spiritual and essential part of life.

Q2

What is the difference between an ordinary man and an artist.

The difference between an ordinary man and an artist is that an ordinary man does not know the value of beauty and he ignores it. Whereas, an artist is aware of the beauty of the universe. So, he tries to impart it to the object he makes.

Q3

How can we make our lives charming and beautiful?

By recognizing and valuing the beauty of objects in the universe, our lives become charming and beautiful. And this will also satisfy the spiritual desire as recognizing beauty is a spiritual activity, which will make our lives more beautiful.

MTWTFSS

4- What does the writer actually mean when he says, "Beauty is not an ornament to life"?

The writer means that beauty is not an ~~additional~~ thing like an ornament that adds ~~more value to an~~ object, but it is an essential part of life. It shapes the object as moral activity shaped actions. Without beauty the object is ~~like~~ like immoral actions which are unliked.

5- Do art and beauty affect our practical life and morals? Justify whether you agree or disagree

Yes, art and beauty affect our practical life and morals. Seeing and recognizing beauty is a spiritual activity that satisfy our spiritual desires and shapes our actions. Without beauty, there is spiritual dissatisfaction - similar to living without truth and righteousness. This is why art and beauty have effects in our lives.