

(1)

The author ~~lamented~~ about deviance of art from our lives. Art has been ~~neglected~~ and misunderstood by the people. Just like actions without morality is ~~ugly~~ similarly, life without beauty is meaningless. People ~~view~~ beauty as extra decoration, not something important.

(2) There is no significant difference between ~~an~~ artist and an ordinary man because all are given same opportunities. People often misconcept ~~this~~ by linking artistic ~~with~~ quality with peculiar gift. Although everyone has the same ability, some continuously ~~not~~ consciously practice and embrace art while others not.

there is no sense of this answer

1) We can make our lives beautiful and charming by recognizing the aesthetic quality of the art and by learning to love beauty and making the things we use or create more meaningful and beautiful.

never answer in a single sentence

(4) "Beauty is not an ornament to life", the writer means that beauty is not something extra or optional. It is a basic and necessary part of life, just like goodness / morality in actions. Beauty should be <sup>a</sup> part of everything we create or use, not just added for show.

(5) Yes, art and beauty do affect our practical life and morals. They fulfill our inner needs and bring peace, joy and meaning to our lives. Just like truth and honesty guide our actions, beauty shapes how we live and what we value.

820