If you do not attract the world, if tears come in your eyes with the fear of Allah, if the imagination of hell terrifies you, if you do the worship of Allah as it has to be done, if good deeds attract you and your feet stop you to go on the path of evils then you are righteous. Some born good and some practice to become good. To be good is a matter of good luck. To become righteous is an act of continuous accountability and struggle. It takes time and you have to face troubles

If the world does not attract you towards itself, if your eyes become teary because of fear of Allah, if the thought of hell instills fear of God in you, if you worship Allah the way it should be done, if virtue attracts you and you refrain from vice, then you are righteous. Some are born righteous, some become righteous. Being righteous is a thing of fortune. Becoming righteous is a continuous process of purification and struggle. It takes time and requires enduring hardships.
