

A thing of beauty is a joy forever

"A thing of beauty is a joy

"forever" is a line from John Keats Poem. It refers to the eternal attraction towards things like sunset, rain, reading books, riverside. It does not include things which is temporary and Physical attachment. It is the Satisfaction of Soul which lasts forever.

Beauty reflects not only

Physical appearance but it also includes the sounds in the shade of nature like birds singing in a forest, the sound of rain, the song of cicadas. It brings Peace to the soul of a person. The joy of enjoying your liked ones never lasts.

It is having the ability to hear it million times and will give you the same joy as it had given ~~too~~ the first time.

A person leading normal life face a lot of challenges and hardships. Living such life one must get up and to continue break is necessary. ~~It~~ could be the only way that a person may refresh the soul through all the means which can Possibly be approaching towards the beauty, whatever it may be.

True beauty is eternal and lasting. ~~It~~ is not only the Physical appearance but the deep lasting ~~happines~~ happiness it gives to our lives.
