BATCH 075

If the world does not attract you, if tears come ~~to~~ in your eyes in fear of Allah, if the thoughts of Hell instills a sense of accountability within you, if you worship Allah with sincerity and devotion, if virtue appeals you and your steps resist the path of evil - then you are righteous.

Some are born righteous, while others attain righteousness through efforts. Being righteous is a blessing; becoming righteous is ^a continuous process of self-purification and struggle. It demands time, patience and endurance.
