

"A thing of beauty"
is a joy forever.

"It's loveliness increases, but it will never" By John Keats.

It belongs to the beauty either its natural or human-made. Both beauties have their own colors in different perspectives. Beauty makes a person happy and lively though it
fades with the passage of time. A person can enjoy the beauty of nature by admiring the creator who makes sun, moon, stars, earth, animals, humans and many more things.
If we sit alone we should think about the nature, the stars on the sky which fuel fill our souls with light instead of darkness. Just like this the human-made things like artificial flowers, buildings, monuments, books, clothes all reflect our personality.
We find things in beauty which freshen-up our souls and mind and provide us peace.

Beauty is not just a feeling but a source of happiness. By indulging in beauty we can escape from the harsh realities of our lives and hardships. Beauty is a powerful attraction for both men and women. Even the children feel relaxed by sitting in natural beauty. It gives a smile on our faces and help us to overcome the difficulties. Every person has their own vision regarding beauty. It may be the thing we are admiring the most is not the source of happiness for others. It is actually related to our senses and perception how we perceive. When we are talking about the person that we are actually talking about their physical appearance. Of course beautiful face or handsome face is pleasant to look. But it is all about person's senses. Beauty can be defined as the quality that gives pleasure to the mind and associated with such
