

1. The author laments that it is very unfortunate that to see that the art has been disappeared from the life of ordinary people. Art is not being adopted as a soul profession by anyone except few painters and sculptors. They do not value art in any aspect of their life.

2. Ordinary man perceive art merely as a source of pleasure. They do not value art and never recognize and appreciate the beauty. On the other hand, artist, who value and recognize art and appreciate the beauty of nature and try to impart that beauty to whatever ~~that~~ he makes. And he pursue art for his own spiritual satisfaction.

3. We can make our lives beautiful and charming by recognizing the beauty of nature and appreciating it. Moreover, by adding beauty and art in our life.

4. By saying "Beauty is not an ornament of life", writer means that beauty is not merely a source of pleasure. Beauty has a relation with the nature. Because recognizing and appreciating beauty means appreciating nature, which is ultimately a source of spiritual satisfaction.

5. Yes, I agree that beauty and art affect our practical life and morals. Because recognizing beauty and inculcating it in our lives leads to a kind of spiritual satisfaction within human beings. Moreover, work without beauty depicts the unsatisfied spiritual desire in the worker which is a waste of life.

Signature _____

RC