

DATE: _____

DATE: 24/6/25

English Comprehension Test

Ans 1: The ^{lack of} desire of man to be an artist or saint or a man of science has been lamented in the text. Men no longer, indulge in the activity of satisfying their spiritual desire. Except from a few painter and sculptors, people has failed to recognize the activity of spirit and exercise an activity without their spiritual desire because, they do not see the beauty of that activity, unlike artists and saints.

Ans 2: The difference between an artist and an ordinary man is that an artist exercises human abilities to the best, the abilities that all humans have. An artist desires to be an artist, knows what means to be an artist and exercise his abilities continuously and consciously. He exercises an activity with spiritual desire. On the other hand, an ordinary man lacks spiritual desire to do any work, that he is up to.

DAY: _____

DATE: _____

Ans 3: According to the passage, we can make our lives beautiful and charming by recognizing the beauty of everything we do. We must have the spiritual desire to indulge in any activity. Only then, ~~we can~~ we can exercise perfection. By having spiritual desire, that activity will not be burdensome on us and will not drain us. We can make our lives beautiful and charming by being aware of the beauty of any task. Only then, beauty can be imparted.

DATE: _____

DATE: _____

Ans 4: By the phrase "Beauty is not an ornament to life", the writer means that beauty cannot be added to life or things, like an ornament is added to things to accentuate them. Each and everything already has its beauty. Beauty is the essential part of life or things. But unfortunately, not every man uses his best abilities to identify the beauty, unlike artists.

Ans 5: Yes, beauty and art do affect our practical life and morals. Beauty and art make a man enhance his productivity because he sees beauty and imparts beauty in whatever he does. By seeing the beauty of

DAY: _____

DATE: _____

of everything he does, he satisfies his spiritual. Thus, art and beauty affect our practical life by enhancing the outcome of everything we do, because we are aware of its beauty and affects our moral because we satisfy our spirit.