

English Comprehension Test - 2

Q1:- What has been lamented in the text?

It has been lamented that in today's world an ordinary man is unaware of the aesthetic activities. Particularly art. Art is exercised by only painters or sculptors. Although, it must be common to all.

Q2:- What is the difference between Ordinary man and an artist?

There is a difference between Ordinary man and an artist. An Ordinary man does not know the real meaning of beauty, he recognizes beauty with things which lack aesthetic or moral value. On the other hand, an artist can see the beauty around him and can impart it in his work which actually reflects moral value and aesthetic activity. In short, both perspectives of the beauty is not same.

Q3:- What does the writer mean when he says, "Beauty is not an Ornament to life?"

Date: 1/1

By this statement the writer mean that beauty is not merely a materialistic pleasure but rather an aesthetic activity which disclose itself in all natural things with proper meaning, emotion and moral value.

Incomplete test
Add a little bit more explanation to your answers
Forexample ornament is a an external thing adding to enhance the aesthetic essence where the real beauty lies in itself ...