Repeat question statement at the start of the answer.

What is difference between an ordinary man and an artist?

An artist is a person who knows the beauty of the universe more than an ordinary.

man. To know about the beauty of universe, an artist makes vigorous efforts and explores the universe. It is only after sincere endeavours that an artist is able to demonstrate the beauty in his art. On the other hand, an ordinary man ~~who~~ <sup>does not</sup> doesn't exercise art in life.

Q3. What does the writer mean.... "Beauty is not..."

By the phrase "Beauty is not an ornament to life", the author means that beauty <sup>should not</sup> shouldn't be taken as an entity of decoration, in fact it ~~should~~ be made <sup>an</sup> integral part ~~and~~ of life.

Beauty should be incorporated in our daily actions. <sup>It must be weaved in our actions</sup>

Q4. What has been lamented in Text?

The author has lamented in the text that art and aesthetic activity <sup>have</sup> no place in life of an ordinary man.

The ordinary man deems beauty as a decorative thing that can be bought (for money), ~~rather than~~ a part and parcel of daily active. This is made life of an ordinary man meaningless and dull.
