Translation :-

If the world doesn't attract you, if the fear of Allah brings tears to your eyes, if the concept of Hell makes you God fearing, if you worship Allah the way He should be worshipped, if you desire enjoining right, and if your feet stop from walking from the wrong path, then you are righteous. Some people are righteous, some become so. Being righteous is a matter of fortunate. It requires continuous self-purification and evaluation. It requires time, and also holds different challenges along the way.
