TRANSLATION

History is full of people who had a rough start to life but later went on to become some of the most renowned and successful personalities in the whole world. Success, fame and respect are not served on a silver platter, only money is, and that too on the condition that one is born into generational wealth. Money can buy all luxuries of life but it cannot buy happiness. Sometimes, a person can spend decades ~~of~~ to ~~their~~ earn a name for himself, but it only takes a moment to fall into disgrace and become controversial.
