Translation :

History is full of people who started their lives in adversity but were later counted among the successful and well-renowned. Success, dignity, and popularity are not served on a plate - only wealth is, and that too under one condition: your ancestors must have it; only then you will receive it. One can buy worldly things with fortune, but happiness cannot be bought with it. Sometimes, it takes a lifetime for a person to earn respect but it takes only a moment for someone to be humiliated or become controversial.
