History is full of ^{such} successful people who started their lives in extremely difficult circumstances. They went on to become successful and famous personalities in the world. Success, honor, and fame are never handed to you on a silver platter. Only wealth can be given to you on a platter, but even for that, there's a condition: your ancestors must have had property; only then you will receive wealth. With wealth, you can buy worldly necessities but you cannot buy happiness. Sometimes, it takes decades for a person to earn respect, but only a moment is enough to disgrace or become controversial.
