

Maxam Khan

Batch #74

37296-maxam-074

History is rich with successful individuals who faced tough times in their early life, but later they became successful and well known among people. One cannot achieve success, admiration and fame easily. It's only money that may come without struggle especially if inherited from your forefathers. You can get everything with money except pleasure. It often takes too long to earn respect; but only a single moment is enough to ~~degrade~~ degrade a person.