

History is filled with the examples of people who started their earlier lives under harsh circumstances but later on they become successful and famous. You don't get served respect and fame in the plate, it is only wealth that you get without hardwork but for that too there is a condition that your ancestor must have generational wealth / property.

Money can buy worldly elements but not happiness. Sometimes, it takes decades to earn respect but a moment to lose it.

Quiz # 2

Hina Abid 76.

UMS-ID : 38510.