Translation

History is full of those successful people who started their lives in difficult circumstances but later became some of the most successful and renowned people in the world. Success, respect and fame are never given to you in silver plate and even that comes with condition that your ancestors have had some assets, only then you can have wealth. With money you can buy worldly goods but you can not buy happiness. Sometimes it takes decades for a human to earn respect but it only takes a moment to become notorious.
