

Translation

History is filled with those successful persons who started their life in difficult circumstances. Later on they become successful and famous personalities. Success, Reputation and Popularity are not ready made.

Only money can be attained directly if your ancestors are wealthy. Money can fulfill the worldly desires but happiness can not be attained through money. Sometimes a moment can destroy a reputation built over years.