Translate following into English.

History is full of such people successful people who started their lives in extremely difficult circumstances but later they become successful and renowned ~~figuer~~ figures in the world.

Success, respect and fame are never handed to you on plate. only wealth can be.

only if your ancestors have property you can only get wealth.

with wealth you can get worldly necessities but not happiness.

Sometimes it takes decades to earn respect, but earning humiliation or becoming controversial can happen in an instant.
