

Earning God's love by loving his Creation.

One night, Abu Ben Adhem, a pious man, saw an angel in his room writing the names of those who love God. Upon finding his name was missing from the list, he requested the angel to write his name as one who love his fellow human beings. The next night, the angel reappeared with the list, in which Abu's name was ^{at} on top, and gained God's love the most for loving humanity.

(73 words)