English Translation Test-1

History is full of successful people who begin their life journey in extremely difficult situations. But at the end they were considered among the most famous and known personalities. Success, honour and glory is never served to you on a plate. Only wealth is given to you on a platter on a condition if your ancestors owned property. From money you may buy accessories, but it cannot buy true happiness. Sometimes, it takes decades for a person to earn respect, but just a single moment to fall into disgrace or become controversial.
