History is full of <sup>1</sup> ~~those~~ successful persons who started their life from a very difficult situation but later on, they were included in ~~successful~~ and well-known personalities. Success, respect and fame will never serve you in a plate just wealth can be, if your ~~acestors~~ have a property then wealth can be yours. From money, one can purchase materialistic things but can't purchase happiness -

Decades to go for a human to earn respect but it takes a while for humiliation or conflict -

History is replete with such successful people who began their lives in extremely difficult situations, but with time, they became successful and famous personalities. Success, respect, and fame cannot come to you on a platter; only wealth can be bestowed upon you if you have ancestral property. For this, it is also imperative that your forefathers have left you with some property, only then you can gain wealth. With wealth, you can buy worldly possessions, but you cannot buy happiness. Sometimes, it takes many years for a person to earn respect or fame, and it takes only a moment to lose it by becoming involved in a dispute or by committing a shameful act.
