

Ayesha Shabbir

Batch # 078

LMS ID # 38975

Translation

History is filled with such persons whose started their life from most critical situations but became the successful and noble personalities of the world in future. One cannot get success, respect and prosperity without any effort although, only wealth can be achieved. This is only possible when one's ancestors have wealth and they granted one. You can buy universal luxuries with money but not happiness. Sometimes, man spend many centuries in earning respect but a single moment is enough to be irrespected and humiliated.