History is full of such successful people who have been born in extremely difficult circumstances but later on they were named among successful and famous personalities of the world. Success, respect, and fame is not an easy catch. Only wealth can be served on a plate, for that too there is a condition that your forefathers should have property, only then you will get wealth. You can buy worldly things with wealth but happiness cannot be bought. Sometimes it takes decades and others repute while earning disagree and becoming controversial takes less than a minute.
