Avoid writing word by word transl

The world is full of those people who started the journey of their in hard times and then the same people got successful and become successful. No one gets respect, success, respect and fame that much easily except those who inherit wealth from their forefathers. One one gets wealth but is not able to own happiness from it. Some times a person earns respect in decades but lost this respect in a second.

Write in formal words plz
