The Blessing of Loving Others

One night Abu Ben Adham saw an angel writing something in a golden book. Upon Abu's enquiry, the angel said that he was writing the names of those who love God. Abu found his name missing and requested to be recorded as the one who loves his fellowmen. The angel vanished and returned next night with a divine light, revealing the list of those blessed by God's love. Abu's name was at the top of that list.
