Q. Translate the following into English, keeping in view the idiomatic/figurative expression (10)

There are many ~~successes~~ in the history whose lives ~~were~~ very poor in the beginning, but later ~~they~~ became among the most ~~successful~~ and prominent people in the world. One can never ~~have~~ success, respect and fame without going an extra mile. This is only possible in the case of wealth, only if it is ~~inherited~~. We ~~can~~ fulfill our worldly desires with wealth but happiness cannot be ~~achieved~~ with it. Sometimes respect takes a lifetime to be earned by a person, on the contrary, humiliation and controversy need only a few moments.
