English Translation.

History is full of successful people who started their lives in very difficult circumstances, but later became some of the most successful and renowned personalities in the world. Success, respect and fame can never be inherited - you have to work hard to earn them. No one can give them to you for free. The first step is to work hard. You must work so much that even luck supports you. With wealth, you can buy luxuries and comforts of the world, but you cannot buy real happiness. Sometimes, while chasing money, people lose their self-esteem. The difference between earning respect and losing it can be just one small moment.

History is replete with such successful people who began their lives in extremely difficult situations, but with time, they became successful and famous personalities. Success, respect, and fame cannot come to you on a platter; only wealth can be bestowed upon you if you have ancestral property. For this, it is also imperative that your forefathers have left you with some property, only then you can gain wealth. With wealth, you can buy worldly possessions, but you cannot buy happiness. Sometimes, it takes many years for a person to earn respect or fame, and it takes only a moment to lose it by becoming involved in a dispute or by committing a shameful act.
