History is replete with such successful people who began their lives in extremely difficult situations, but with time, they became successful and famous personalities. Success, respect, and fame cannot come to you on a platter; only wealth can be bestowed upon you if you have ancestral property. For this, it is also imperative that your forefathers have left you with some property, only then you can gain wealth. With wealth, you can buy worldly possessions, but you cannot buy happiness.

Sometimes, it takes many years for a person to earn respect or fame, and it takes only a moment to lose it by becoming involved in a dispute or by committing a shameful act.

History is full of accomplished people who started their life with difficult circumstances, but they got their place in world's famous and successful people. Success, respect and fame can never be earned without efforts. Only wealth can be gained without any efforts but, that too, on a condition that your ancestors must have it to handover it to you. World's luxuries can be bought by money but not happiness. Sometimes it takes decades for a man to earn respect. Receiving disrespect and becoming controversial is only a matter of a moment.
