

Date: / /

QUESTION No 4

1. See eye to eye with

Most of the world sees eye to eye on the preservation and restoration of human rights to maintain peace and world order.

2. Tamper with

Tampering with evidence undermines the integrity of the legal process and hinders investigation.

3. For good

UNICEF aims to improve the lives of children worldwide so that they can leave the cycle of abuse and harmful practices for good.

4. The small hours

Many dedicated leaders work tirelessly in the small hours to provide their people with helpful policies that lead to progress.

5. Nip in the bud

During Covid-19, Imran Khan tried to take such measures that would nip the pandemic in the bud before it could ruin the livelihood of the citizens of Pakistan.

YOUSAF PAPER

Date: / /

QUESTION No 3

1. The success of the summit depends on mutual cooperation.
2. The report draws heavily from mutual cooperation.
3. The nation stands on the threshold of a new era.
4. The policy is consistent with the principles of international law.
5. The treaty was ratified by all member states except two.

QUESTION No 1

While new technology has ^{facilitated} ~~provided~~ the human life, it has also raised questions on personal freedom and human integrity. During this time of digital supervision, citizen's every moment is being saved in a data base somewhere. Governments and corporations are turning this unlimited treasure of information into a power method that can affect human behaviour. If this situation is not contained within the legal and ethical spheres then the man of future would be called extremely free but his freedom would be a complete bluff.

YOUSAF PAPER

Date: / /

QUESTION No 2

1. As a developing country, poverty remains a major challenge in Pakistan.
2. Each participant was required to submit his report by Friday.
3. The scientist, along with his team, was conducting the experiment.
4. The data suggests that every student has improved his performance.
5. Neither of the explanations seemed to satisfy the panel.