

English Precis and Composition

Question no. 2:

Sentence Correction

iv) The Scientist, along with his team, were conducting the experiment

Correct: The scientist, along with his team, was conducting the experiment.

vi) The data suggests that every student have improved their performance.

Correct: The data suggest that every student has improved their performance.

ii) Each of the participants were required to submit their reports by Friday.

Correct: Each of the participants was required to submit their reports by Friday.

iii) The committee discussed and agreed to implement what the Chairman have proposed.

Correct: The committee discussed and agreed to implement what the chairman has passed.

viii) Neither of the explanations seem satisfactory to the panel.

Correct: Neither of the explanations seems satisfactory to the panel.

Question no. 3

Prepositions

ii) The treaty was ratified by all member states except two.

iii) The findings are compatible with previous research outcomes.

vii) Her theory departs from traditional interpretations.

- v) The success of the summit depends upon mutual cooperation.
- iv) His argument rests on a fundamental misconception.

Question no. 4

i) To break the ice

(To get something started)

It is hard to break the ice at formal events.

iv) For good (Permanently)

He left England for good and came back to Pakistan to settle among his children.

vii) In a jiffy (In a moment)

Please wait for me here, I will be back in a Jiffy.

iii) See eye to eye with

(To agree fully with someone)

My sister don't ^{see} eye to eye with me about our brother's wedding arrangements.

vi) The Small hours

(The early hours of the morning)

He was arrested in the small hours of Saturday morning.

Question no. 1:

Translation

A) When the Strong economies of the world subordinated the global financial institution for their own interest, economic independence for developing countries became nothing more than a dream. International financial institutions, under the loans, impose such conditions that push borrower countries toward dependency rather than sustainable development. This process has given rise to new colonialism where weapons of rule are not gun but currency, interest and markets. Today, the biggest challenge for united nation is to establish a balance between development and sovereignty that protect their national interest from global pressure.

B)

Modern technology has facilitated human life, ^{yet} it has also raised new question regarding personal life and human dignity. In this era of digital surveillance, every moment of citizens is stored in one database or another. Government and corporations are changing this vast source of information into power which could affect human behavior.

If this situation is not bring under effective legal
and moral framework,
future man will called
free but his freedom
with merely a deception.