B

PUNCTUATION

If you look about you and consider the lives of others, as well as, your own. If you think; how few are born with honor; and how many die without name or children. How little beauty we see; and how few friends we hear of. How many diseases and how much poverty there is in the world. You will fall down upon knees and instead of repining at an affliction will admire so many blessings, which you have received from the hand of God.

Q: NO. 02

PRECISE and TITLE

London is unique. This uniqueness appears in the following manner: all are treated same regardless of their status and background. Unlike rural discourses, the metropolis presents a varying scenario where everyone has to balance their personal and professional life, highlighting role of people in society as a commoner. Therefore, no one inquires about the wealth, status, or designation one holds, instead prioritizes behavior, wit, comprehension, and manner. Similarly, quality life and merit prevail over all. Hence, this proves the status of equality London ensures and the freedom of speech it streamlines without any bias. It can be a better place to enjoy.
