Q2.

✓ Title: Equality: London Vs Remaining Kingdom 3

6 In Kingdom, London is the only place where value of each individual equates to his contributions in the society. Whereas in other parts of kingdom, there is different story. In Manchester or Liverpool, man is admired, communicated or countered according to his wealth and status. For these things actually shape his own humbleness or arrogance. However, in London civic sense and good manners are ultimate determinants, even parliamentarians and elite class are treated as commoners. Likewise, visitors get equal treatment based on their expression and wisdom rather than their status. Contrarily, in countryside equality is elusive where importance of individual depend upon being voter, supporter or ~~their~~ wealth. Therefore, to enjoy one's own his company, country is the suitable place but to experience equality and freedom of expression without intimidation, London is the only place in kingdom.

Translation

Literature is not merely limited to words, but it is a reflection of man's experiences and feelings. When a poet or a writer starts to write, he not only covers his era but also leaves a message for the coming generations. Our great poets like Ghalib, Iqbal, and Faiz not only composed poetry but they also inculcated whole generations in their words. Sadly, today's generation is moving away from books and focused on fake shine of social media. If we don't keep our literary traditions alive, we will lose our identity. Literature is the only aspect which connects past to the present and present to the future. ^{Hence,} It is dire need that we generate interest in the youth for knowledge and introduce them to our great poets and writers so that they remain connected ^{to} their roots.
