

DATE: ___/___/___

Q 4:

- 1) We accept their offer on the ground that something is better than nothing.
- 2) Add one cupful to half glass of water.
- 3) The bag was heavy so I could hardly lift it.
- 4) She advised me to never point your finger at anyone.
- 5) An innings is one of the divisions of match during which one team takes its turn to bat.
- 6) Neither of the two applicants had suitable qualification.
- 7) Ahsan does not want to study, nor does he want a job.

finger at anyone.

5) An innings is one of the divisions of match during which one team takes its turn to bat.

6) Neither of the two applicants had suitable qualification.

7) Ahsan does not want to study, nor does he want a job.

Q 5: A

The prisoner looked through the narrow window and said, "They call this justice, yet I have never been heard." The guard replied softly, "Orders are orders, Sir! Freedom isn't decided here." A journalist outside shouted - The ministers claimed no one is above the law, but who decides what law means when truth is behind bars. The cell fell silent. The prisoner smiled.

DATE: ___/___/___

faintly and whispered: they can cage a man, but not his conviction.

Q 5: B

1) in

2) from

3) on

4) at

5) over

6) for

7) at

8) ~~at~~ in

Q 6:

Q 6:

- (i) After being fired from his favorite post, Abbas gives Gile a fish out of water.
- (ii) Although Israel has committed genocide, yet the Palestinians have to give it certain ~~conditions~~ concessions in order to give the devil his due for futuristic peace.
- (iii) Aq went to the wall because he has lost all his money.
- (vii) The president gave a laconic speech in order to appease the ministers.
- (viii) We cannot put back the clock for what he has done.

DATE: ___/___/___

Q 2:

"Precis"

Title: The Illusion of Green Revolution

Green energy has been presented to masses as mankind's liberation from fossil fuels. Terms like Carbon neutrality and net zero are used as if these are hidden promises to neutralize planet. Yet, green revolution is exhausting the planet. Its agenda hides the cost and hazardous practices required to extract rare earth minerals. Vegetative land also affects, hence reducing one crisis leads to other. The engines^{formation} of glorified ~~veh~~ electric vehicles produce more Carbon than traditional engines. They have recycling issues and create waste. The illusion of sustainability hides its consequences. Similarly, wind and solar farms create waste because of recycling. The tragedy is also ethical because green labels act as business enterprise. Sustainability requires mitigation and systematic approach. Green energy disturbs the planet in another way.

Q 3:

1) The rivals of Timothy Dexters advised him to ship coal to Newcastle because they were jealous of his success and wanted to humiliate him. They advised him to go Newcastle, which is itself coal hub. However, he made fortune because the coal production had stopped there.

2) The unexpected event in England that transformed Dexters' foolish coal venture into profit was the strike of miners. Resultantly, local coal production was not underway and he earned alot from his coal venture.

3) The author implies regarding the relationship between dull and intelligence as; one must not think about what others think because sometimes unexpected can occur if a man constantly works. Also, a man must work upto one's abilities and must not underestimate one's values.

4) Dexters' repeated success in turning mockery into profit challenge conventional ideas about business, wisdom and education as education is not the only measure of intelligence.

One might be uneducated but it does not hinder wisdom. Also, a business needs risks sometimes to run and not just wisdom for decisions.

5) The way Dostoevsky's rivals reacted to his achievements gives a clue about human thinking of foolishness and genius like that of an idle who considers himself genius and pointing others as fool due to one's decisions in life. Humans think about a genius as the one having formal education, but sometimes foolish decisions can turn the Duck in one's favor.

Q: 7

Any professor of Urdu who ^{if} claims that he or she understands Ghalib well and can firelently critique on his literary contributions, is indeed pretending his or her knowledge and understanding. But if he is asked to produce a single poetry piece like Ghalib, then indeed he or she would stuck. It is because ~~intuition~~ ^{understanding} and imaginary creation are two different things. Mind emanates understanding while creativity results from intuition. Ghalib's glory is not just the result of hardwork and study, rather it was his deep cognition and the Godly intuition that thrilled him. This the very reason that his poetry still affects individuals today since it did in that specific time.

DATE: ___/___/___

• ~~—————~~ •