

Green Revolution: Misleading Slogan

Q<sup>2</sup> Precis :-

People imagine, renewable energy as a human moral salvation and antidote to fossil fuel. Every entity of the nation flaunt the term like carbon neutrality and net zero for planet healing. But contradictory green revolution itself deteriorating the planet. <sup>Moreover,</sup> The inspiring idea about clean technology require huge quantity of Earth minerals extracted through destructive mining practices. Major minerals producers have poor vegetation and poisoned soil under the banner of sustainability. But hypocrisy is that <sup>isidicating</sup> ~~are~~ one environmental problem cause another problem. Furthermore, electrical vehicles were glorified as eco-morality but their batteries production and recycling emit more carbon than common ~~eng~~ engine, in the light of progress. Likewise, wind and solar ~~panels~~ farms were practically clean but their turbine blades and solar panels cannot be recycled and their production through fossil fuel made it a misleading motto. Human's obsession with "eco-friendly tags" turned environment commercialism. Rather it require, moderate humbleness. Hence, Planet is not healing by renewable energy, it is destroyed by it.

Q=7 Translate into English.

If any Urdu's professor claim that he know very well about the Ghalib's poetry and can make lively conversation on his mortal qualities, then indeed he is showing his intellectual qualities.

But if he is demanded to say one verse like Ghalib, he will be helpless. Because understanding and creation are two different worlds.

Understanding is product of intellect, while creativity is the outcome of divine and insight inspiration.
