Comprehension:

Answer: 1

Tomy Dexter's rivals advised him to ship coal to Newcastle because he was successful and they want to denigrate him. They advised him to ship coal to Newcastle in England because coal was found in abundance there. If he ships coal, he will lose everything. This is what they were aspiring.

DAY: _____

DATE: _____

Answer: 2

The event that transformed Dexter's foolish coal venture into profitable success was that a massive strike (err) of miners erupted in Newcastle, England. Local production of coal was halted. Demand of coal was more. Therefore, he sold all his coal cargo at profitable rate and emerged victorious.

Answer: 3

The author implies about relationship between luck and intelligence in Tomy Dexter's success that luck always favours the brave.

Trimotly Dexter's took bold decisions on basis of his intelligence regardless of ongoing trends and luck favoured him and he became successful.

DAY: _____

DATE: _____

Answer: 4

Dexter's repeated success in turning mockery into profit challenges conventional ideas about business wisdom and education in a way that conventionally it is believed that (only) business wisdom and good education helps in measuring and detecting trends of business and thus directing business strategies and making decisions accordingly. However, Dexter's success suggests that without business wisdom and education one can make progress, if he can take bold steps.

Answer: 5

It can be inferred about human perception of foolishness and genius from the way Dexter's rivals reacted to his achievement that genius is one who minds his own business and work for self growth, while foolish is one who meddle in others affairs and want to achieve success by humiliating others. Dexter was sincere with his work and emerged successful while his rivals were interested to degrade him and therefore they were foolish.
