

Q3 Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Q1- Why did Timothy Dexter's rivals advise him to ship coal to Newcastle, and what was the intended outcome of this suggestion?

Answer Timothy Dexter is coal trader of America and successful businessman. Due to its success the rivals suggested him to send his coal to New Castle city of England with endless supply of coal with intentions that he will lose all his money there.

2- What unexpected event in England transformed Dexter's apparently foolish coal venture into a profitable success?

Answer In England, A miners strike happened which stopped local production and created a sudden shortage of coal. This situation provides opportunity to Dexter to ~~stop~~ sold entire cargo with massive profit. Hence, this event changed foolish Dexter into profitable venture.

Q3- What does the author imply about the relationship between luck and intelligence in Timothy Dexter's success?

Answer The author implies that Dexter's success was a result of ~~luck~~ unique combination of luck and boldness rather than intelligence alone. This achievement shows that fortune some times favour the daring, even decision appears foolish.

Q4 How does Dexter's repeated success in turning mockery into profit challenge conventional ideas about business wisdom and education?

Answer Dexter's story proves that you don't always need higher education or business rules to succeed. Even though people laughed at his ideas, his creative thinking and courage helped him earn profit again and again.

Q5

What can be inferred about human perception of "foolishness" and "genius" from the way Dexter's rival reacted to his achievement?

Ans.

It clearly shows that people often call new ideas foolishness until they succeed. In Dexter's story, Rivals thought he was a fool, but when he succeeded, they realized he was smarter than they thought.

Q7. Translate the following into English,
Keeping in view the idiomatic/figurative expression.

Ans

If any scholar believes that he fully understood Ghalib's ~~an~~ artistic genius, he may indeed speak about it with confidence and eloquence. Yet, when he is asked to compose even a single verse like Ghalib, he becomes utterly helpless. This shows that understanding and creation are two entirely different things. Understanding comes from intellect and reasoning, whereas creation is born ~~from~~ from divine inspiration and ~~spirit~~ spiritual presence. The greatness that was bestowed upon Ghalib was not the result of hard work, extraordinary intelligence, or deep emotion alone. It was a divine blessing granted by God. That is why his poetry still holds the same beauty, power, and emotional impact today as it did in his own time.
