Question 4

Answer

Introduction:

Extremism is one of the pressing challenges facing the Muslim world today. It has distorted the peaceful image of Islam, divided societies and hindered progress. While Islam promotes balance, tolerance and justice, certain political, social and ideological trends have led some groups to adopt rigid interpret and violent interpretations of religion. A critical analysis of issues reveals that the teachings of Islam can serve as the most powerful antidote to extremism.

Meaning and Concept of Extremism in Islam

The Arabic term "Ghulud" means to exceed limits or go beyond moderation. In religion, it implies exaggeration in belief or practice beyond the bounds set by Allah and His messenger.

"O People of the Book! Do not go to extremes in your religion"

(Surah Ah-Nisa)

Islam discourage rigidity and fanaticism. Instead, it commands balance and mercy as the foundation of faith and social behavior.

Major Causes of

Extremism in Islamic World

1- Political and Governance-related Cause.

Authoritarian regimes, political exclusion, corruption and absence of justice have fueled resentment. When legitimate political expression is suppressed, frustrated group often resort to violence, disguising it under religious slogan.

2- Socio-economic Deprivation and Inequality

Poverty, unemployment and lack of opportunities especially for youth create fertile ground for radical recruitment. Societies where economic injustices prevail often witness the rise of extremist ideologies promoting equality and tolerance.

3- Misinterpretation of religious texts

Many extremists distort religious texts revealed in specific contexts (like those about jihad) and apply them controversially without understanding the principles of contextual moral. This selective interpretation fuels violence.

4- Foreign Intervention and Global Injustice.
Continuous war, occupation of muslim lands (palestine, Iraq) and perceived western double standards have deepened anger among muslims. Extremists exploit these grievances to justify militancy under the guise of defense of Islam.

5. Weak religious Education and misuse of media

The decline of authentic Islamic scholarship and proliferation of unqualified preachers online have spread misinformation. Social media amplifies hate narratives and glorifies violence in the name of religion.

Islamic Teaching on peace, Tolerance and Moderation.

1- Islam as the religion of peace

The word Islam itself is derived from word 'Salam' mean peace. The Quran affirms:

• And if they incline to peace, then incline to it also and trust in Allah"

(Surah al Anfal)

Violence, bloodshed and aggression are antithetical to Islamic spirit.

2. Principle of Moderation

Moderation is a core value in Islam. Balancing between excess and negligence.

"And those who, when they spend, are neither extravagant nor niggardly, but hold a medium way between those extremes" (Surah al Furqan)

3. Ethics of disagreement

Islam recognize diversity of opinions as natural. The Prophet (PBUH) said:

"Difference of opinion in my Ummah is a mercy"

Tolerance in disagreement is therefore integral to Islamic scholarship.

4. Justice and Compassion

Justice and Compassion is a fool peace. justice

Ghazi Papers

is the foundation of peace in Islam.

"Indeed, Allah commands justice, excellence, and giving to relative, and forbids indecency and oppression"
(Surat Al Nahl)

without justice, peace remains fragile

5. Respect for Human Life
Respecting all human beings without regard to their caste, race and color.

'Whoever kill a soul..it is as if he has killed all mankind; and whoever save one life, it is as if he has saved all mankind'

Surat al maidah

Prophet Muhammad (P.B.U.H)
Model of Tolerance

The prophet practically demonstrated tolerance toward his enemy:

97. Charter of Madinah established peaceful coexistence b/w muslims, jews, and pagans.

Ghazi Papers

2. Treaty of Hudaibiyyah showcased patience and strategic peace over confrontation.

3. Conquest of Makkah: The Prophet (P.B.U.H) delivered general amnesty

He build a Society based on forgiveness, justice, and compassion not revenge.

Conclusion:

Extremism in muslim world is not born by islam but of its misinterpretation and misuse amid political and social turmoil. Islam as a religion of mercy and moderation, offers a holistic framework for peace, justice and coexistence
