Q. IVQ. 07: Translation into English

If any professor of Urdu claims
that he comprehends
the work of Ghalib
very well and
can communicate
it in a better way, indeed he is portraying his profound knowledge

about it, if he is requested to say a single
line like Ghalib,
then he would
find himself helpless.
Because knowledge
and creativity are
two different
spheres. Knowledge
is the product
of mind; whereas,
creativity is the
result of excessive knowledge. The prestige which Ghalib got, it
is not solely
due to reading
or hard work, but it was reflection
of unusual sagaciousness and feelings. This is the reason that his poem still
inspires the hearts
of the people in the same way as it did decades back.
