

Name: Hazrat Umar
Batch - 81 (Mock-4)

Ans 2. PRECIS

(1)

Renewable Energy: An another wave of Earth's exploitation.

Renewable energy is often portrayed with terms like "carbon neutrality" as saviour of the earth. But it is still a paradox. As it is another wave of marketing enterprise for earth's exploitation. Solar panels, wind turbines and electric vehicles production consumes more fossil fuels than traditional consumers. They require lithium or cobalt etc. for its batteries which leads to intensive mining in countries like China, Chile and Congo. The renewable sources of energy has limited life span often contributes more solid-waste. In addition, its maintenance and logistic support is backed by fossil fuels. Therefore, a new issue is arising while dealing to solve existing one. A "New wave of industrial exploitation" is taking place as in the name of Green Revolution which causes more damage than its repair to the earth.

ANSWER NO: 03

Comprehension

① Timothy Dexter's rivals advised him to supply coal to New castle because they wanted to humiliate him. As the city has already a prominent supply of coal. However Dexter was able to sold his shipments with greater profit due to low supply and high demand because of miners strike.

(2)

- ③ local miner protest and strikes had cut down the supply and blockage of coal production made Dexter's venture into profitable trade.
- ③ The author intended to imply that never underestimate your rivals.
- ④ Dexter's success highlights that business is dependent on the situation; it is the confidence in one's own trust and beliefs to transform them into actionable tasks.
- ⑤ Human perception is limited. as what seems foolish might be a genius and vice versa.

Ans 4: SENTENCE CORRECTION

- ① we accepted their offer on the grounds that something is better than nothing.
- ③ Use one capital to half a bowl of water.
- ③ The bag was so heavy that I could hardly lift it.
- ④ Neither of the two applicants had suitable qualifications.
- ⑤ Absan does not want to study, nor does he want a job.

ANSWER 5 Part (A)

Punctuation

The prisoner looked through the narrow window and said, "They call this justice yet I have never been heard". The guard replied softly, orders are orders, Sir! Freedom isn't decided here.

A journalist outside shouted; the minister claimed; no one is above the law but who decides what law means, when truth is behind bars. The cell fell silent; The prisoner smiled faintly and whispered; they can cage a man, but not his conviction.

PART (B)

- ① Tehmina applied to a bank for a loan.
- ② She died of starvation.
- ③ Look to the left and you will see our destination.
- ④ We saw a movie in the theatre.
- ⑤ I pushed through the crowd.

Answer No: 08

- ① He was resembling a fish out of water, when he left his country.
- ② After tireless efforts he cracked his examination as on pins and needles.
- ③ The boy reorganises his life to put back the clock for his family.
- ④ A laconic speech was delivered by Winston Churchill when they were going to fight in WW II.
- ⑤ The hallmark decision by Supreme Court has paid the devil his due in the case.

ANSWER NO: 07

Translation

If a professor of Urdu claims to have an understanding of Ghalib's work, and he can make an environment by talking or discussing its literary qualities, so obviously he is showing his knowledge brilliance, but if he is asked to recite a single verse like Ghalib, then he will become helpless. It is because that intellect and creativity are two different worlds/things. Intellect is the product of reason and mind. While creativity is the result of spirituality or divinity. What Ghalib has earned was not simply due to hardwork or study but it was an exceptional genius, sense and God's blessing reflection. This is the reason that even today after centuries, his poetry touches the heart as it has done in his time.