Q No-7 Translation

If a Professor of Urdu were to claim that he understands Ghelib's poetry well and can eloquently discuss its artistic manner, he would indeed show/casting his scholarly powers. However, if asked to recite a single verse in the style of Ghalib, he would be left helpless. Because, comprehension and creativity are two different things, comprehension is geniusness whereas, creativity is God gifted. The status Ghalib achieved was not merely due to hard work or study, but was a manifestation of extraordinary intelligence, sensitivity and divine grace. That's why, even centuries later, his verses resonate with hearts in the same way they did back then.
