

Q-5

(B)

- (iii) Look to the left and you will see our destination
- (iv) We saw a movie in the theatre
- (v) I rowed the boat on the lake
- (vi) we all sat at the dinner table
- (ii) she died of starvation

2/5

3/5

(A)

The prisoner looked through the narrow window and said, "they call this justice? Yet, I have never been heard." The guard replied softly, "Orders are order Sir. Freedom is not decided here." A journalist outside shouted, "The Minister claimed no one is above the law but who decides what law means? When truth is behind bars!" The cell fell silent. The prisoner smiled faintly and whispered, "they can cage a man, but not his conviction."

1/5

Q 6

(iii) Go to the wall

On the ground of repeatedly disturbing the chairperson Ali was shown the wall.

(viii) To put back the clock

What done is done and we have lost the match and we cannot put back the clock and change the outcome.

(vi) A laconic speech

On hearing his laconic speech, the employees thought to work hard.

(i) A fish out of water

He used to come first in every class but in the college competition he came last so it looks like the fish is out of water.

(ii) To give devil his due.

You came first due to coach hard work and relentless focus so you must give the devil his due credit in post mortem conference.

official on which Umar al-Hakim

(Q-7)

If a Professor of Urdu claims that he fully comprehended the poetry of Ghalib. ~~This~~ shows that he is merely showing his knowledge on the subject matter. However, if one asked him to write a one single couplet like Ghalib he will be helpless. This shows that Knowledge and Creativity are two distinct entities. Knowledge is merely a manifestation of one comprehension but Creativity is divine and intuitive. ~~What~~ The stature of Ghalib is not due to his Knowledge but due to his extraordinary intelligence.

6/10

Intuition and empathy, This is the reason ^{why} ~~that~~ after centuries ~~his~~ ^{his} couplet touches heart and mind like as if they are for this time.

Q. 4

(iv) She advised me never to point finger ~~at~~ anyone.

(vi) ~~Neither~~ of the two applicants had suitable qualifications. 10

(vii) Ahsan ~~didn't~~ ^{neither} want to study, ~~but~~ ^{was} he wants a job.

(iii) The bag was so heavy that I hardly couldn't lift it. X

(v) We accepted their offer on this ground that something ^{was} better than nothing.

Q.3

(1)

Timothy Dexter's rivals were jealous of his success and wanted to see him fail. So, they advised him to ship his shipment to Newcastle England hoping that he will suffer a big business loss.

(2)

When Timothy Dexter's shipment reached Newcastle England there was already a coal shortage due to worker strikes. This unexpected shortage of coal brought him immense profit.

(3)

According to author, Timothy Dexter's bizarre unconventional business plan shows that he is a risk taker and luck always favors those who are brave to take it. This implies that luck and intelligence go hand in hand.

(4)

Dexter's ⁵ success shows that one must remain open to new ^{business} ideas and thought. As new ideas demand risk, while conventional business demand stability and risk averse behavior.

(5)

Dexter's ~~rituals~~ underestimated his potential. They inferred that Dexter's ^{novel} ideas are profane and out of box. Hence, they considered him a fool and ~~disregarded~~ his novel genius tendencies toward businesses.

10/20

Q. 2. Title?

Renewable Energy ~~which is considered a panacea to heal the planet~~ is exploiting Earth's precious mines and minerals. These rare earth minerals ^{being} are exploited from world poorest regions. ~~which~~ ^{it} has destroyed vegetation and ~~has~~ rendered innumerable hidden cost. Similarly, production of electric vehicles and e-waste has ~~led~~ to immense pollution and toxins. This is making one to question the true purpose of sustainability as Earth is now being plundered again in a different way.

Title: Renewable Energy: A Dimension of Sustainability.

title at top
word count is missing
6/20