

DATE: ___/___/___

Question #5 - PunctuationAnswer

The prisoner looked through the narrow window and said, "They call this justice? Yet I have never been heard." The guard replied softly, "Orders are orders, sir! Freedom isn't decided here." A journalist outside shouted, "The minister claimed no one is above the law but who decides what law means when truth is behind bars!" The cell fell silent. The prisoner smiled faintly and whispered, "They can cage a man, but not his conviction!"

03/05

Question #5B - Prepositions 0/05

i) Tehmina applied ~~out~~ to a bank for a loan.

ii) She died ~~from~~ starvation.

iii) Look ~~to~~ the left and you will see your destination.

iv) We saw a movie ~~in~~ the theatre.

v) You can go ~~as~~ you have done your homework.

Question # 7- Translation

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner

Focus on grammar please

Do not attempt word by word.

Solution.

05/10

If any professor of Urdu claims that he is an expert of the work of Ghalib and he can comprehensively talk on its artistic style then no doubt he is trying to prove his educational capability. But if he is asked to say a stanza like Ghalib, he will be unable to do so because understanding and creativity are two different things.

Understanding is due to rationality while creativity is linked with sub-consciousness and revelation. The honor that Ghalib received was not just the outcome of reading and hardwork but a God-gifted sense and exceptional intelligence. This is the reason that even after centuries his poetry/stanzas ^{and heart wrenching} is as effective as it was in the past.

Question # 4- Correction

04/10

Solution

- iv) She advised me to never point finger ~~to~~ anyone.
- iii) The bag was so heavy that I could hardly lift.
- vii) Ahsan doesn't want to study or a job.

Ahsan doesn't want to study, nor does he want a job.

Neither

vi) None of the two applicants had ~~suitable~~ qualifications.

vii) We accepted their offer on the grounds that ~~something~~ is better than nothing.

Question #6 - Sentences

A fish out of water

04/10

The mother was crying for her missing son like a fish out of water.

To give the devil his due

Aslam always cheated everyone so this was the time to give the devil his due.

On pins and needles

On receiving the news of the son's accident, the mother was on pins and needles to see him.

Fill in the blank boxes

Question #2 — PrecisThe Deception of Green Energy*Title: Dark side of Renewable Energy*Precis

06/20

Renewable energy is considered as a clean alternative to fossil fuels. Everyone brands the terms 'carbon neutrality' and 'net zero' as clean initiatives but the truth is otherwise. The renewable sources have Overall understanding the idea is ok Title needs improvement. Grammar is ok. The environmental cost in the form of extraction of rare earth minerals which is harmful as well. Thus, solution to one problem triggers the other problem. The most applauded electric vehicles batteries too emit more carbon while manufacturing and recycling. The 'clean' turbine blades and solar panels while recycling also demand the traditional fossil fuels. So the net zero slogan is just a deception and paves way for the obsession of green rated. While the true path of sustainability lies in efficiency and humility.

Precis word count = 117

Focus on clarity, logical flow and Avoid disjointed sentences.
 Write clear and short sentences
 Avoid complicated sentences
 Follow the order of precis's original passage

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively

Do not be irrelevant in your answer

Please enhance length of each answer

Read the passage carefully

Question #3 - Comprehension

09/20

1 -

Answer 1 Timothy Dexter's rivals were tired of his successes in business so they advised him to ship coal to the New castle - a city which was already famous for its supply of coals - so that Dexter might lose this time. But this time too the fortune favoured him and he earned a lot of profit as the coal workers were on strike and the demand of coal was not fulfilling. So, he earned a lot of profit.

2

Answer #2

2 The unexpected strike of coal miners in Newcastle England - that stopped local production and creating a shortage of coal allowed Dexter to sell his coal in profitable price leading his apparently foolish coal venture into a profitable success.

Answer #3

1 The author implies that Rock has nothing to do with the intelligence as sometimes being underestimated proves to be more advantageous.

Answer #4

Dexter's repeated success in turning mockery into profit challenges the conventional ideas about wisdom and education as it is not always wisdom that leads you to success. But luck too has a role in success. But self-confidence is also necessary along with luck. In this way, limited education can also prove to be fruitful.

Answer #5

Dexter's rivals considered him foolish because of his limited education and his random and bizarre decisions about business. But the outcome of these decisions always proved his genius. Dexter even with his apparently foolish decisions always earned profit, making the others think that he is in fact a genius.